CROATIAN SAUSAGE HOUSE
SVETI PETAR U ŠUMI, ISTRIA, CROATIA

IN THE HEART OF ISTRIA

Sveti Petar u Šumi, where history meets inspiration

In the heart of Istria, far from the rush of large cities, lies Sveti Petar u Šumi – a place where history, tradition and authentic flavours meet at every turn.

Its past is preserved by the Pauline monastery and cloister and the richly decorated Baroque church, while the identity of the village has been shaped for generations by the craft of making Istrian sausages and other traditional products.

Here, Istrian tradition unfolds through stories, heritage and flavours that linger in the memory.

BUSINESS EVENTS WITH A LOCAL TOUCH

MORE THAN A VENUE

A unique setting in the heart of Istria

In a village where the craft of sausage making has been passed down through generations, Croatia's first Sausage House opened in 2021.

Under its roof, Istrian gastronomic heritage meets a contemporary interpretation of tradition, creating a distinctive setting shaped by local stories and authentic flavours.

Flexible and modernly equipped, the venue offers an inspiring environment for business events, conferences, seminars, workshops and other MICE programmes, which can be enriched with tastings of Istrian sausages and traditional cured meats.
